New Business

Old Business

The committee reviewed 201 KAR 33:060. Supervision requirements. And discussed amendments to clarify that the regulation relates to licensed dietitians only, and to require on-site supervision of credentialed or licensed dietitian eligible persons practicing under supervision in a hospital or nursing home. No vote was taken and recommendation will be considered at the next meeting.

201 KAR 33:010 was reviewed, and the Regulations Committee discussed whether to increase the licensure, renewal, and reinstatement fees from $50 to $75. No conclusion was reached.

Board Counsel will prepare and present draft language for compact readiness, including a new regulation for certain compact issues, at the next scheduled Regulations Committee meeting on October 21, 2026.

Board counsel advised amendment to 201 KAR 33:015 and 33:020 for compact readiness can likely not be filed until the amendments filed on July 15, 2026, are final. This is due to rules relating to agency amendments and not wanting to withdraw the existing regulation package to restart from the beginning.

Adjournment of Meeting

Ms. Richie made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Motion seconded by Ms. Hofe, carried. Meeting adjourned at 11:59 a.m.
